

High Twelve International, Inc.

Mid-Year Fellowship and Entertainment 2009

Hyatt Regency Hotel, San Antonio, Texas

18 November Wednesday (early arrivals)

Through 21 November Saturday

Dear Ladies and Gentlemen, because of the need for High Twelve International to conserve costs, this midyear convention will be Dutch treat with one banquet meal planned to honor the Governing Board. This banquet will be complimentary to Board members and their ladies. Transportation to and from entertainment and dining will be by taxi-van as our most inexpensive means of travel. The cost is to be shared among riders. A Hospitality Room will be available at various times during the Convention.

We will all have a great time along with productive work. Gift bags and Yellow Rose of Texas corsages await your ladies, and our Texas-sized greetings await each and every one of you!

SCHEDULE OF ACTIVITIES

Note that this schedule is subject to change due to unforeseen circumstances.

Wednesday 18 November [for early arrivals]

Tour immediate Riverwalk area on your own. If you have not made your reservations at The Landing for live jazz in the lobby area, please consider it!

9:00 p.m. to whenever. Make your reservations to listen to live jazz, eat snacks or a meal at The Landing on the Riverwalk level of the Hyatt Regency. Jim Cullum's world famous happy jazz band plays great music and you can make requests. To learn more, visit:

<http://www.landing.com/aboutlanding.htm>

Click Main Menu and Beverage/Wine List for options and prices.

Thursday 19 November

7:30-8:30 a.m. Breakfast in hotel or surrounding area on your own.

10:00-11:15 a.m. Bring your camera ladies! We will walk the short, but lovely Paseo del Alamo from the hotel straight to Alamo Plaza and the Alamo, cradle of Texas Liberty. A special tour has been arranged for you by the Daughters of the Republic of Texas. Our guide will point out some facts regarding the Masonic history of the battle and its participants. For more information and history visit: <http://www.thealamo.org/main.html>

11:30-12:30 p.m. Buffet lunch at the historic Menger Hotel Colonial Room located a short distance from the Alamo. Here we will join our men for a nice lunch together at an approximate cost of $18.00 per person including gratuity. To learn more about the hotel and its fascinating history, visit: <http://www.mengerhotel.com>

12:30-6:00 p.m. Please feel free to visit the many shops and entertainment areas in Alamo Plaza and/or on the Riverwalk or return to the hotel for a restful afternoon.

6:00-7:00 p.m. Complimentary one-hour Welcome Reception at the hotel.

7:15-9:30 p.m. Banquet with open bar at San Antonio's place for Tex-Mex food. We will travel to historic Market Square to dine at Mi Tierra Mexican Café y Panaderia (bakery). Serenade your spouse by the mariachis at a reasonable cost. You might want to visit the bakery for delicious pan dulce (Mexican pastry, maybe for your breakfast in the a.m.?). Afterwards we will stroll lovely Market Square and its unique Mexican shops. For more information, please visit:

<http://www.mitierracafe.com/>

Friday 20 November

7:30-8:30 a.m. Your pan dulce for breakfast with coffee or tea? Otherwise, breakfast in hotel or surrounding area on your own.

10:00-11:00 a.m. Ladies arrive at the Southwest School of Art and Craft for a tour conducted by a skilled docent of this historical campus. With our guide, we will visit the art and craft exhibits. The ladies have a room reserved for their light lunch at the on-site Copper Kitchen. For more information, visit:

<http://www.swschool.org/>

11:15 to 12:15 p.m. Ladies light lunch at the Copper Kitchen. Men to have lunch on their own.

12:15-2:00 p.m. Shop or just study the interesting items at the gift shop on campus...unique items of art, jewelry, stationery, pottery... among other things to see.

2:15 p.m. Return to hotel or shop/tour the Riverwalk or Alamo Plaza as you desire.

6:30-8:30 p.m. Banquet for High Twelvians and their ladies at the historic Scottish Rite Library and Museum. Scottish Rite docent and 2nd Vice President of the Texas Association of High Twelve Clubs, Brother Ralph McLeod, will give us a little history of this great Masonic building, its special doors, and other interesting facts. For more information, visit:

<http://www.scottishritesanantonio.com>

Saturday 21 November

7:30-8:30 a.m. Breakfast in hotel or surrounding area on your own.

After that: Mid-year meeting concluded. Please turn in any name tag holders. If you decide you wish to stay a little longer, please see message below. Otherwise, Texas wishes each of you pleasant goodbyes and safe travels to your home or final destination!

We thank you for your support of High Twelve by visiting us here deep in the heart of Texas!

FOR MEMBERS WHO WISH TO STAY A LITTLE LONGER

Should you decide to stay in San Antonio a few more days, please let us know for our contact information should you need it.

Thank you and excited to hear that you are coming to our unique multicultural downtown area!

